

Sisters and Brothers:

In the last 48 hours, AFSCME and the Coalition of LA City Unions have seen positive movement at the bargaining table. For that reason, we have decided to extend mediation.

While all options remain on the table, we are dedicated to the mediation process to resolve key negotiations issues and to reach a fair agreement that protects and promotes good middle class jobs and the quality public services we provide for the City of Los Angeles.

In unity we are strong!

Please stay tuned for further developments!
